LIR Golf Outing is 7 Days Away! Auction Live NOW

The 5th Annual LIR Golf Outing is set for Friday June 8! The current weather forecast is calling for 87 degrees and partly sunny, but the way things have been around here lately, who knows! Let's all keep our fingers crossed that this forecast holds. Check in starts at 7:30am and we tee off at 8:30am. Interested in playing, sponsoring or donating items? We can take players through next Monday and hole sign sponsors through the end of this week. Thanks to all of our current generous supporters!

Can't make it Friday, but want to participate and support our mission? Well, again this year you can, as we are offering an Online Auction for all Living In Recovery supporters.....and the site is open for bidding NOW! Feel free to share this email with your friends.

Visit: <https://www.32auctions.com/LivinginRecovery> and click the "View All Items" button at the upper left. From there, you will see all of the prizes available. Our donors have offered some great prizes and keep checking back as new items will be added over the next week! When you select the item you are interested in, you will be prompted to create an account. The auction will be up and running through Sunday June 10th at 6PM.
